Dedication

A teacher and advisor to the students, a mentor to the faculty, and a guiding force in the community, he has demanded excellence in both the classroom and on the playing fields. He has held various positions at Governor Dummer Academy: Director of College Counseling, a professor of English and Spanish, a coach of football, basketball, spring track, and even volleyball czar. His trademark, however, is history.

His insight and expertise in this discipline and his love of knowledge teaches an appreciation for education. In fact, his discussions bring to life notable events from United States, Chinese, and Russian history. He has always been there in trying times to give his support and understanding with his wisdom and courteous smile. He came to us in 1954 from Gettysburg College and Duke University and served a tenure as one of the Academy's finest masters. Out of respect for his devotion to the community for almost four decades, we proudly dedicate the 1992 Milestone to:

WILLIAM HARTLEY SPERRY

*The only way to have a friend
is to be one.*

Ralph Waldo Emerson

We have come too far
We have sacrificed too much,
To disdain the future now.

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

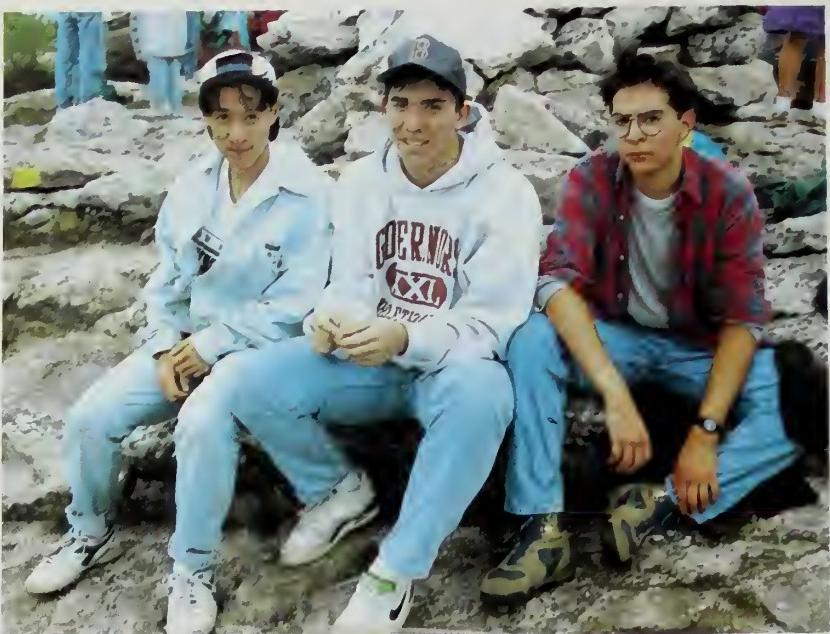

I never think of the future.

It comes soon enough.

Albert Einstein

*What is thine is mine,
And all mine is thine.*

Plautus

Often music is used as a form of expression. It allows diversity and individual preference to guide feelings through a world of uncertainty. In this Phantom of the Opera song entitled "The Music of the Night," one impression may be that Governor Dummer is the Alma Mater to each of us. The impression is education and its basis in individual life. To the graduating Seniors, who are seeking their position in this world away from Governor Dummer; to the Juniors, who are assuming school leadership; to the Sophomores, who advance to an upper-class position; and to the Freshmen, who have established themselves at a school so new to them, the words to this song are meant for all of you. Look beyond the literal word translation and find your own impression:

Night time sharpens heightens each sensation. Darkness wakes and stirs imagination. Silently the senses abandon their defenses. Helpless to resist the notes I write, For I compose the music of the night. Slowly, gently night unfurls its splendor. Grasp it, sense it, tremulous and tender. Hearing is believing, music is deceiving, Hard as lightning, soft as candle light, Dare you trust the music of the night. Close your eyes for your eyes will only tell the truth and the truth isn't what you want to see. In the dark it is easy to pretend That the truth is what it ought to be. Softly, deftly the music shall caress you. Hear it, feel it, secretly possess you. Open up your mind, let your fantasies unwind in this darkness which you know you cannot fight, The darkness of the music of the night. Close your eyes, start a journey to a strange new world, Before thoughts of a world you knew before. Close your eyes and let the music free. Only then can you belong Floating falling sweet intoxication. Touch me trust me savor each sensation. Let the dream begin, let the darker side give in. To the power of the music that I write. The power of the music of the night. You alone can make my soul take flight, help me make the music of the night.

To Mrs. Elaine Bailey White,

We the Senior Class would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all the time, effort, and dedication you put towards our class over the past four years here at Governor Dummer Academy. Through thick and thin, good times and bad, you stayed with us all the way. At times we may have frustrated or even upset you with our actions; but, no doubt you kept your patience and set us straight. Your demands and expectations of us in the classroom pushed us to our limits, and today we thank you for it. As we leave GDA, we will all miss your warm personality, your kind heart, and your loving smile. Mrs. White, over the past four years you have grown and matured, and because of you, we the Class of 1992 have also grown and matured. The best of luck in all of your future endeavors. We will not forget you. Thank you.

Underclassmen

Juniors

Class of 1993

This year showed the different sides of the junior class. We excelled in all that GDA has to offer: in sports, in extracurricular activities, and in academics. Juniors demonstrated a strong degree of leadership during leadership weekend and are poised to become seniors that can study, play, and guide the student body.

The juniors that become captains of their sports next year will be able and experienced. Artistically, our class has proven itself with many studio and performance talents. It has been a successful year, a year of growth.

Sophomores

Class of 1994

The year showed the depth of the sophomore class. We excelled academically, artistically, and athletically. Many are on the High honor roll or the honor roll. Also, most are in strong positions in their sport, with a surprising number on varsity teams. A lot of fun this year, but next will be better; we'll be Juniors!

Freshmen

Class of 1995

From time to time, each of us will look back on this year and not be able to control the smile that comes to our faces as we remember old times. Never will the laughter and good times of the freshmen year be forgotten. In this important year we learned of our talents that make us unique from any other class. The friends we've made will be there forever and with open arms; we await new ones as well. The brotherhood that we found here will take us through Governor Dummer and beyond.

Mike: Saiyid is a freshman?!?

"Hey Curley, come back here, we're having fun!"

WEEKEND

"Are we there yet?"

Senior Class Will

J ...

Samuel B. Nickerson, leave one solid ebony Samoan war club with eight power points.

Matt Reinis, leave an unoccupied pay phone to Perkins.

Kate Atkins, leave Englebert to Pierce Dorm.

Christina Morss, leave Josh Lappin an extra can of shaving gel.

Jason Pierce, leave one nap everyday for everyone in the GDA community.

Mercedes Paul, leave my Stetson cowboy hat and my cowboy boots to all the uncultured and uncivilized New Englanders. See ya in Texas!

Joe Montminy, leave my Cherry Pie C.D. to Beau Gnyot.

Amanda Toner, leave Dawn Morrill the Shanghi and Tetris disks and my Godly talent.

Melissa Margarones leave to each and every boarder some place to go off campus during the 36.5 weekends of the year.

Penn Chapin, leave my Blue Cross/Blue Shield card and a whole lot of sympathy to Bert.

Rion Kato, leave all the dorm duties and the clipboard to Al, Nads, Lappy and Cory.

Barry Hugo, leave my list of Mr. Leavitt's sayings to next years' BC-Calculus class and my brother.

Cassie Wickes, leave my wallet on the side of the road for anyone who cares to explain it!

Erin Elwell, leave Joe Montminy a couple of peacock feathers and a pair of boxers.

R. Miles Van Rensselaer, leave my mental health, my belly button, and my bikini to Shirani Rocheile Wickramasinghe.

Grace Jeanes, leave my long hair at GDA.

Ali Derderian, leave Annie Olney a towel on which sits a diet ice-cream bar, a Lehmejune, and a new lipstick on a non-windy spot on the beach at Marco Island.

Toby Harris, leave GDA knowing I made up, "A thumb for a giant!"

Joshua C. Lappin, leave my Jeep Wrangler (equipped with car phone) to the Topsfield Crookie-Wookies.

Hoyt Morgan, leave Mr. Piatelli one long tie. May he forever wear it without ever being self-conscious.

Ted Capeless, leave all my driving ability and all my accident stories to whoever needs them.

Sean Colgate, leave my goggles to anyone that would like them. I also leave a clue to Steve Scully.

Pete "Gary" Eliot, leave to Damian Prescott all my talent and an ISL Lacrosse Championship.

Steve Scully, leave my naivete to my siblings because S.C. will be some distance away from GDA.

W., Chris and Steve Peabody, leave our Chevy Mobile to any boarder who wants to use it during the weekends.

Special Olympics

The 1991 Special Olympics was the ultimate competitive day for hundreds of athletes around New England. This year's Special Olympians competed in soccer and cycling, working hard to prove that they were the best of the best. The fun filled Olympic town and an enormous food operation kept those athletes busy when they were not competing. This year's senior leaders were Devin Sullivan, Randy Hemming, Sean Naughton, Tara Ryan, and Lisa Widdicomb.

How if, when I am laid into the tomb,
I wake before the time that Romeo come to redeem me? There's a fearful point!

A glooming peace this morning with it brings. For never was a story of more woe. Than this of Juliet and Romeo.

ON ROMEO AND JULIET

"The fearful passage of their death marke'd love,
And the continuance of their parents' rage,-
Which but their children's end, nought could remove,-
Is now the two hours traffic of our stage

Please let me call your attention the universality of this story and the perhaps - lost magic of Shakespearean theatre.

Romeo and Juliet defines the romantic situation. Society remains a conspiracy against lovers; but love remains what we most want and dream of from Pyramus and Thisbe to Daisy and Gatsby. Leonard Bernstein reincarnated

Romeo and Juliet in Tony and Maria. They live on today in the hearts of teenagers throughout the world. Tonight you will experience the joy and dread of his first love. Romeo and Juliet is a long play of thousands of words. We must remember in Shakespeare's media-starved age that words were dripping with connotations. Words today are but one of the stimuli for the brain. They have been reduced to junk food of the "sound bite." Prepare your ears tonight for fibrous food: roast beef and whole wheat not twinkies. An Elizabethan person could be entertained and stimulated by words. Words triggered images and experiences and complex associations (which we now call puns). For language to have such power requires imagination. Join us for two hours and imagine.

Men's Varsity Soccer

The Men's Varsity Soccer team saw many new players this year who gave the team a new look. Under the leadership of captains Jed Murdoch and Devin Sullivan, the team finished with a record of 7-6-2. The key to the season was the positive attitude that started in Canada and lasted throughout the season. Unfortunately, the team was plagued by injuries, but we had no problem adjusting to this problem with the help of a strong bench.

There were many inspiring moments during the season, such as the huge upset over Milton, and the win over St. John High School in Saint John (Canada). Who could forget Josh Pike saving a penalty shot against Rivers? We will always remember the intense play of Navins Cup winner Steve Peabody and the dramatic comeback of Nick LaPierre. Small things stick out as well, like Juice Newton, Stayin' Alive, Nelly's sweats, uniform number two, and of course, renting movies in Canada.

Good Luck to next year's captains Josh Pike and Matt Casellini, and thank you Coach Karin and Coach Nelson for a successful and fun season!

This year was one of rebuilding after losing nine seniors from last year. This team may not have had the talent of those from years past, but they had tremendous heart. The lady cardinals received many set backs during the year including many injuries to starters such as: Pam Kurtz, Camdice Denby, Cindy White, Wendy Swartz, and Nicole Abdulla. Yet this team was determined to "beat the odds" and make this season a successful one.

As the season began, Coaches Perry and Childs were very optimistic although they didn't expect to be among the ISL leaders. The first few games did not turn out well for the Govs, not scoring a goal in their first four games. But finally Tara Ryan scored against Groton and things began to turn around. Although they lost their next few games, the team showed tremendous improvement and managed to come close to some very good teams. The season ended with a not so great 2-10-1 record, but the team's incredible spirit and desire overshadows the overall record by far.

Next season will miss the likes of captain Amy Daniels, Tara Ryan, Pam Kurtz and Nicole Bellaire. Coaches Perry & Childs feel that next year they shall contend highly with the rest of the league, especially with all the team's young talent: Amy Benedict, Becky Vieira, Beth Delilse, Rachel Haynes and Sara Wayne. the team has a bright future. The 1991 team will not be thought of as an unsuccessful team; it shall be looked at as a rebuilding team.

Women's Cross Country

Coach White, K. Atkins, Coach Abusamra

The fields are empty and the sun is setting over the football goal posts, but a cluster of figures still lope along. It's late October, but their faces are red as if with fresh sunburn. One leans aside to spit. As they round a post they all skirt a puddle — from the mud on the backs of their legs it is clear that they all stepped in it last time around and remember.

As usual, the cross country season was a long hard run. The team was young and inexperienced, having only one senior, Kate Atkins. The rest of the team consisted of juniors, Ilse Abusamra, Nellie Godfrey, and Coral Keith, sophomores, Yesenia Ayala and Jill Snee, and freshmen, Stacy Piket and Stancy Roskin. The team was plagued with injuries, which left Coral Keith, Stancy Roskin, and Stacy Piket unable to run for part of the season. In spite of these obstacles, the Governor Dummer Cross Country Team earned a respectable 3-5 record in the regular season and placed eighth in the ISL Championships because our already small team was depleted by injuries and did not have enough runners to qualify.

Nevertheless, there were some significant personal achievements. Captain Kate Atkins, the MVP, was undefeated in the regular season, setting a course record at Groton with a time of 20:57. She was also a member of the ISL All-Star Team and the All-New England Team, as was Ilse Abusamra. Ilse has great talent, which is matched by her enthusiasm, encouragement and dedication. As we strolled Morse Field, it was always Ilse who said, "Okay, guys, maybe we should start running now." She is an ideal recipient for the Coaches' Award, and will be a strong captain next year.

Thank you Mr. Abu and Mr. White, for all your support and understanding you have given me during my time at GDA. Good luck to next year's team — to Ilse, Nellie, Coral, Yesenia, Jill, Stacy, Stancy, and all the hordes of new runners that I'm sure will join!

JV Final Record: 4-4-1

Vastly improved over last year's team record of 3-7, this year's men's cross-country team has great potential for the future. Led by junior Captain Jim Walsh and newcomer Gil Farmer, they held their own in the league, going 5-5. Losing only senior Sean Colgate, there are high hopes for next year's team with the return of many seasoned runners such as Jon Stetler, Ethan Reeves, Nathan Goldstein, and Colin O'Neill. Of course, Gil and Jimbo will come back again to lead the team.

The season's highlights came in blowouts over St. Sebastian's and Rivers. Unfortunately, the team ended on a close loss to Groton. Many thanks to Captain Walsh and Coaches Abusamra and White.

Varsity Football

The 1991 football team will forever be remembered as an indomitable cohesive force. With several returning starters and a new generation of talented players, the varsity football team was virtually unstoppable. The team's success was unmatched by any team, making it the undisputed ISL powerhouse.

The base for the team's success can be contributed to the constant determination and hard work from the players. From the grueling pre-season workouts to the final practice before the New England Class A Championship, the team worked extremely hard proving that discipline was a major factor in its success. Obviously from the scores, GDA won by commanding margins, regardless if it was home or away. By the time the team reached the ISL Championship, we had beaten teams, averaging forty-seven points a game, while opponents could barely score double-digits.

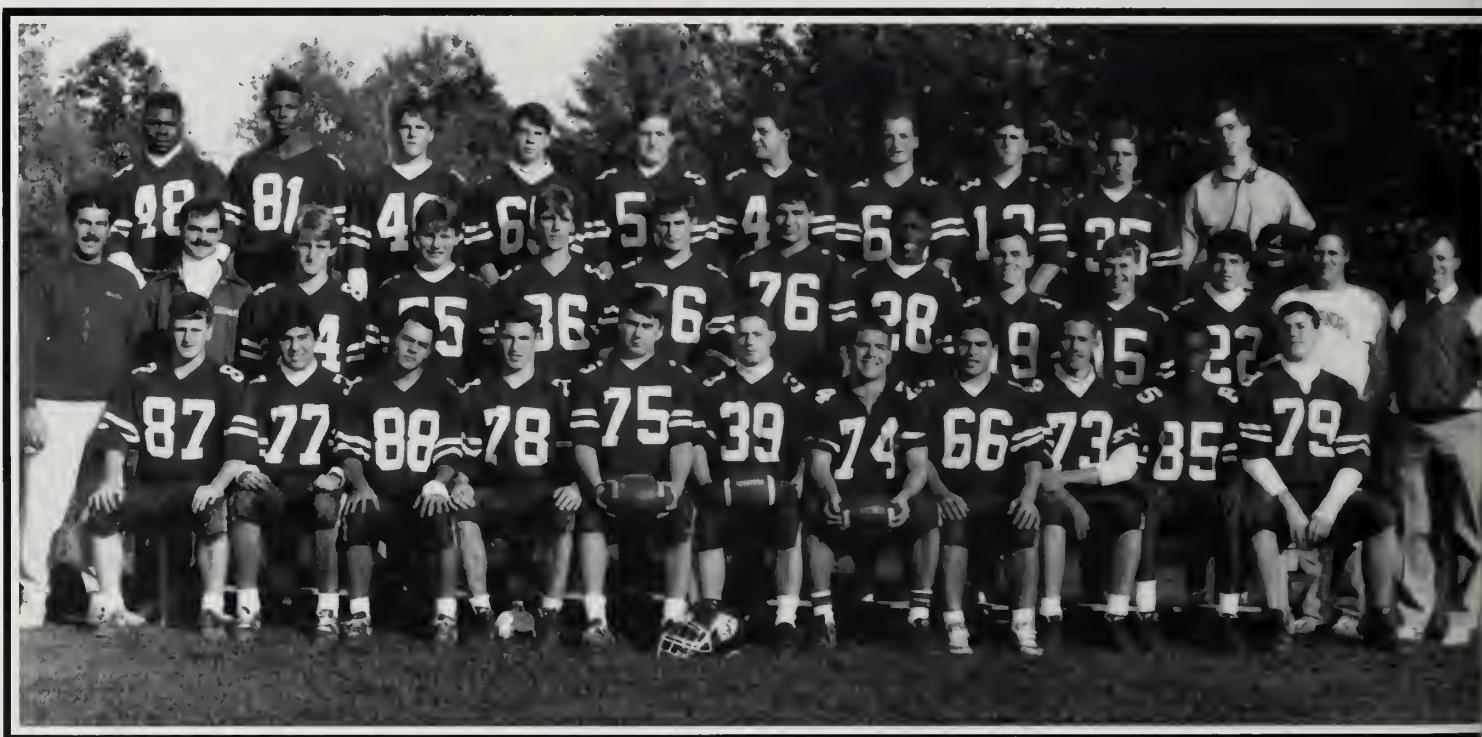

The ISL Championship game was a hard fought battle, but as usual GDA prevailed in a 34-24 victory. The ultimate game was the new England Class A Championship against Hotchkiss. Here we suffered a 41-42 loss, which taught us that hardwork, discipline, and an excellent coaching staff will not always guarantee victory.

Under the leadership of Head Coach Paul Sullivan the football team has turned from a winless team to a New England Powerhouse.

The 1991 football team would like to thank Coaches Sullivan, MacElroy, Ceglarski, Searles, and Saldano for their constant dedication, the trainers, the fans, and everyone else who supported this team of champions.

Varsity Volleyball

Capt. Ryan, Capt. Daniels.

Success on and off the court symbolized the Varsity volleyball team this year. With an undefeated season, they ranked among the top GDA teams this year.

The first game of the season at St. Paul showed that the team could be successful under pressure. Even though they won the first game; they lost the second game. Coming together in the third game gave them the "we can do it" spirit that carried them throughout the season. Placing fifth in the Choate tournament and third in the AISGA tournament does not lessen the memories, teamwork, and success of a great season.

The women's Varsity volleyball team wants to thank Mrs. Cahill. Amy and Tara wish good luck to next year's captain, Karen Filip.

Wrestling

With very little experience, but a whole lot of determination, this year's wrestling team turned what looked like a dismal season into an exciting one. Only six varsity returners provided leadership to those newcomers who were forced into starting roles. Constantly faced with adversity, the team worked hard and by the end of the season, it paid off.

The season began with some personal highlights when two members of the team placed at the Holiday tournament. Senior captain Nick LaPierre and Sophomore Takeshi Kawaji placed third, freshman Saiyid Brent placed second, and Junior Alec MacLachlan took first. This high note soon diminished the wake of hard times. Alec MacLachlan became injured for the season, and Junior Co-captain, Rusty Chase decided to not return after Christmas break.

The rest of the year saw the team climbing uphill, but the hard work began to pay off. The team tied rival and perennial powerhouse Brooks. This achievement provided the motor which powered the team into a season-ending four match win streak. This left the Governors at 4-5-1 for the season.

The Graves-Kelsey tournament provided more excitement when three members: Nick LaPierre (4th), Takeshi Kawaji (4th), and Saiyid Brent (3rd), placed and were invited to the New England's. At the conclusion of the season, Kawaji and Brent were awarded team MVP's, while LaPierre was awarded the Heb Evans trophy.

It is often said that wrestling is not a team sport, but this year's team was the closest knit in a while. The team will not forget Steve Scully's streak, the turbo, etc. Thank you coaches Graham and Finn. Good luck to next year's team under captains Tak Kawaji and Alec MacLachlan.

Men's Varsity Basketball

The 1991-1992 Men's Varsity Basketball team had an excellent year rebounding off of a 9-10 season. The year started off slowly with many of the players and fans unsure of the team's destiny. However, after a poor Christmas tournament and a disappointing double overtime loss to Milton, the team set a goal which was best expressed by Sean Naughton's words, "We're not going to lose again."

From that point, the Govs exploded winning eleven in a row behind the consistency of Joe Kirch's shots; the thunderous dunks of Archie Seale; the patience of off-guard Sean Naughton; and the leadership of second year captain André Sheffield. The team beat powerful teams such as Rivers and Lawrence, and the pinnacle of the team's season was reached after Joe Kirch buried a three pointer at the buzzer from half-court to beat previously undefeated Brunswick Academy in the Class C tournament quarter finals. The success of the Governors continued on through the semifinals, but timely injuries and fatigue prevented the team from bringing home another championship banner and trophy. The backbone of nine seniors will be missed next year; however, the leadership of captains Mike Nadeau and Archie Seale will no doubt bring success once again.

Women's Varsity Basketball

The 1991-1992 season for the women's basketball proved to be a year for rebuilding. With only two returning starters, Amy Hill and Dawn Morril, Ms. Childs needed to focus on building up the fundamental skills and the confidence of the newer, younger players.

The key word that describes this season is "improvement". From practice to practice, game to game, every time we stepped onto the court we strived to play better than the time before. Coach Susie Childs and Captain Amy Hill helped keep the morale up so that this was possible.

The six freshmen on the team, Jackie Bean, Christine Holbrook, Maddie Oelkers, Laurie Carrier, Megan DiTolla, and Ashley Russell, concentrated on improving their game and kept the team amused throughout the season. All six newcomers possess great potential in basketball for their upcoming high school years.

The returning players, Cara

Endyke, Dawn Morrill, Andrea Manning, Amy Hill, and Becky Vieira provided a strong backbone for the team, and also were excellent leaders on the court for the younger players.

Congratulations to Becky Vieira for earning the MVP and All-League Honorable Mention Award, and also to her and Dawn for being chosen as next year's captains. Thanks to our managers, Chris Rodes and Meghan Manzella and thank you Ms. Childs for a great four years. The best of luck to you guys next year!

Men's Varsity Hockey

After a rebuilding year in 1990 - 1991 the men's varsity ice hockey team soared to an impressive 16-6 record for the 1991-1992 season. The Governors were one of only eight teams that qualified for the New England Division I Prep School Tournament. Unfortunately, the Governors' season was ended when they lost a close game, 4-3, to powerhouse Avon Old Farms in the tournament.

At the beginning of the season, Coach Piatelli announced his retirement from the head coaching position at the conclusion of the season at which time assistant coach Ceglarski would take over the reigns of the rich hockey program at Governor Dummer. Call it incentive; Call it dedication. This team decided to put on a fabulous show for Mr. Piatelli's final coaching season.

In the beginning, some questioned the kind of talent the Governors possessed. Some wondered if they could compete in the formidable Keller Division. It was only a matter of time before the Governors showed what they were all about. At the start of the season that brought in some new faces and talent to enhance the strong returning squad. Under the tutelage of coach Piatelli and Coach Ceglarski, the crop of underclassmen was anxious and ready to learn, but the team's success was going to depend on the leadership of those eleven seniors that made up the nucleus of the team. This team was not led by only the senior captain, but by all the seniors in search of one goal: the New England Tournament.

A season is often reflected by the first game, and in front of an electrifying crowd at the Murphy Frost Arena on December 7, the Govs upset the heavily favored Tigers of Thayer, 5-4. This was only the beginning for this Cinderella team. Clutch wins over the other ISL powers Belmont Hill and Milton enabled the Governors to capture second place in the New England Tournament.

It was a most memorable season and guys, "Good teams always find a way to win!"

Women's Varsity Hockey

Our season included a competitive schedule and through consistent enthusiasm we achieved many of our goals. Although we were small in numbers, we relied on our perseverance to carry us through the winter. We did not experience many wins; however, we ended the year with a few strong victories. We defeated Brooks twice and Middlesex in a glorious game.

The team was led by captains Lisa Widdecke and Grace Jeanes and Seniors Deirdre Heersink, Pam Kurtz, Brookie "Babe" Whiting, and Melissa Margarones. The team looks forward to the leadership of next year's captains Katie Mack and Wendy Swartz. Many thanks are given to Coaches Ms. Snyder and Mr. McDonnell. Good luck next season girls — Just Do It.

Dance

This year's dance program was entitled Agapé, the Greek word for love, setting the theme for the Valentine's Day performance. Each piece expressed some sort of love through the imaginative choreography of Fontaine Dollas-Dubus.

Due to the reconstruction of the fieldhouse, Thompson's music room was converted to a dance studio. The change in the location of the dance studio from the gym allowed for better lighting and better sound system, but the space was small and difficult to accommodate all twenty-one dancers. The season got off to a late start because of the incomplete studio, and the date of the show was earlier than years past, both factors leaving Fontaine and the dancers with very little time to prepare the show.

Despite these inconveniences, the show was once again colorful and interesting. The variety of dances included everything from improvisation to modern, tap to traditional, and even a creation of Fontaine's called a "blob." The opening number was a live jazz version performed by Nate Goldstein and Ken Thibideau on guitars and dancer Kris Hand on vocals while the company danced.

Specific numbers embellished the program, such as Erin Grogan's and Cara Marcus' duet and Erin's tap duet with Fontaine, accompanied by Mark Burdon on drums. The true story of Greek women dancing off a cliff during wartime to avoid enemy attack was a moving and interesting piece which certainly stood out as an accomplishment for the dancers and for Fontaine.

Outstanding and notable for her contributions to the show and her impressive ability was senior Erin Grogan, who also choreographed Smith and Company for the second year. Other seniors included Erin Elwell, Cara Fineman, Julie Kavanaugh, Ardy Louis, Melanie Robinson, Dara Shain, and Sally Simpkins. Five juniors, five sophomores, and three freshmen added to the quality and number of dancers who performed.

1992 was the first year of the Club Ski and Swim program at GDA. It involved skiing on Wednesdays at Amesbury and on Saturdays at Wildcat. On Mondays, the team would go swimming at the local YMCA in Newburyport. On Fridays, we would often go for a run, usually the short loop. Everyone, over the course of the season, had a lot of fun. Since the vast majority of the team are underclassmen, we hope that everyone will return next year to tame the cat.

Varsity Baseball

The Varsity Baseball team opened up the 1992 season winning its first three games behind powerful hitting and consistent pitching. However, a disappointing extra-inning loss to Belmont Hill followed by two more one run losses knocked the team off course. A thrilling 3-2 victory over Thayer Academy turned the season around and paced the Goths toward contention for the league title; however, inconsistency plagued the team and the players had to fight to finish over .500. A sound defeat over Brooks School in the final game of the season with the contribution of every team member ended the year on a positive note.

The team was led by the timely hitting of senior first baseman Ted Capeless (.429) and MVP All league centerfielder Devin Sullivan, who carried a powerful swing. Defensively the team was guided by Todd Spain (left field), Jim Walsh (shortstop), Jim Cavanaugh (second base), and Sean Colgate (catcher) whose strong arm accompanied his strong bat. Co-captain Steve Scully directed the team with his pitching, and he was backed up nicely by Shawn Markey and sophomore Tom Faulkner. Next year the team will be led by co-captains Jim Walsh and Mike Nadeau, along with seniors John Shea, Mark Ferrara, and Shawn Markey.

Men's Track

The men's track program had a successful season this spring. The team had a good mix of experience and youth, and performed well in field, weight, and running events. The expertise of seniors such as Andre Sheffield, Eric Goldblatt, and Vic Fidler will sorely be missed, but the team can take heart in the talents of Alec MacLachlan, Archie Seale, Saiyid Brent, and record breaker Cory Crain. Thanks to all of the coaches and volunteers this season; special thanks to Mr. Sperry in his final season coaching - Good Luck, we will miss your presence!

Women's Track

The 1992 women's track season was definitely a building year for the team. We had recently lost some talent, and more points were needed from all of the Governor Dummer participants. This was not an easy task with a team of so few members. I'm sure all the girls would agree with me when I say that we worked very hard, but at the same time had a lot of fun. Every member contributed her best whether she was talented or not. The result was a very focused, dedicated, competitive, and hard-working group of girls who kept improving throughout the entire season. Even though our record does not display it, the 1992 women's track team was strong and very committed to doing its best. Next year, with a few more girls, we should do very well.

Men's Varsity Lacrosse

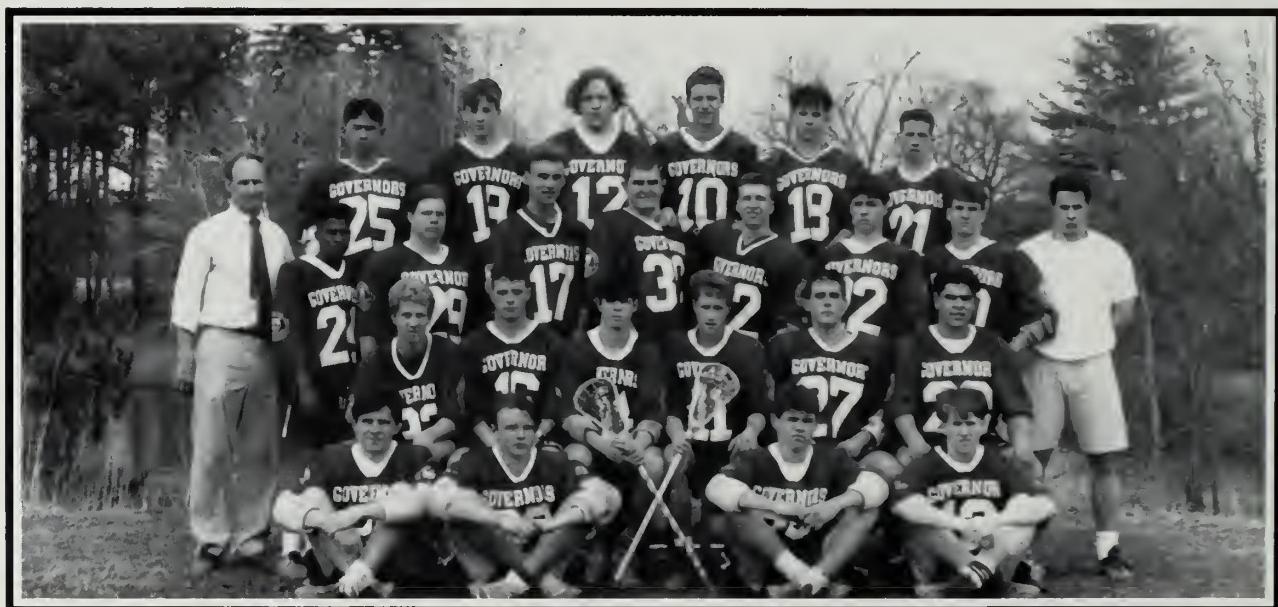

The G.D.A. lacrosse team came off a horrible season last year ready to play this year, finishing second in the ISL with a 9-2 record. Coaches Van Ness and Cooledge stressed physical condition and team unity. This year we had a good team chemistry and bonded when we needed to most.

Some of the highlights of this season were defeats by St. Mark's and Groton in OT, and coming from a 7-1 deficit to beat Middlesex. We also lost two heart-breakers to Milton and Belmont Hill.

Team MVP and first team All-League goalie Pat Gervais played a major role in net. The team was also blessed to have league-leading scorer Damian Prescott, another first team All-League honoree. Stephen Peabody was named to the All-League second team and Tyler Maheu received the Coach's Award. Good luck to next year's captains, Damian Prescott and Josh Bromley.

This year's women's lacrosse team ran across a tough season. Coaches Crowe and Southam had a core of seniors to work with, including co-captains Deirdre Heersink and Ann Rogers, but the team still struggled offensively while freshman goalie Ashley Russell learned the ropes in net. Season highlights included close losses to BB&N, Andover, and Lawrence. With another year of experience and a strong group of rising seniors led by co-captains Rachel Haynes and Cara Endyke, next year's team plans for greater success.

The men's tennis team came into the year with experience. Led by seniors Rion Kato, Chris Ruggiero, Matt Masinter, Mark Foster, Petr Vasicko, Matt Remis, and Bryant Briggs, the team started off slowly, but then came back after three straight losses to win three matches in a row. These seniors will surely be missed as sophomore Reza Pribadi returns to lead next year's team.

This year's women's tennis team met a difficult season. Led by seniors Candice Denby and captain Tara Ryan, the team played consistently but was often overmatched by stronger opponents. Victories over Lawrence and St. Paul's highlight the season, and a close loss to Brooks made for a frustrating end to the spring. The team looks forward to the leadership of Betsy Lee and a solid group of tennis players next year.

The Morse Flag

The recipient of the 1992 Morse Flag has made a significant difference in every area touched by her, and she leaves a better school in her wake. She has carried six challenging courses for four years and has sought this kind of academic rigor with an understated calm and assurance. She is the epitome of a scholar and a true intellectual who is driven by an insatiable curiosity. She began her career at Governor Dummer by earning an A plus in Freshman English and then went on to Junior English the next year and AP English and Senior English Honors Seminar the subsequent year. She has been selected for every accelerated or AP program available. She has earned one of the highest academic averages in the history of the Academy, a 19.8 on a scale of 18.

She has achieved success in all aspects of theatre: she has designed, performed and produced plays at the Academy and with the Children's Theatre of Newburyport at Maudsley State Park. This fall she started a theatre club for students who enjoy improvisational acting. Her interests are as varied as the theatrical roles she has played. Even her announcements at morning meeting are enthralling. Or her bitingly accurate imitation of the Headmaster at Brantwood or here at school. In addition she is a remarkable athlete, a league all-star for three years in cross country and captain of this year's team.

One could go on to discuss her work at Windrush Farm with handicapped individuals, or her aggressive and sensitive reporting for The Governor, her role on the environmental action committee, or her involvement in the occasional poetry readings throughout the year. She has achieved all this with an inquisitiveness, a modesty and a style which inspire those who know her. Governor Dummer is a more academic, humanistic and Athenian community in 1992 than it was in 1988: a prime catalyst in this change is the winner of this year's Morse Flag:

Sarah Kate Atkins

The Academy Prize

Service to others has been at the core of Governor Dummer Academy's heritage. The winner of this year's Academy Prize has been an engaged and outstanding student — compassionate, imaginative and bright. She has had the courage to run risks to learn what she wants to know, the courage to ask a question that might make her vulnerable. As good as she has been in the classroom, she has reached even farther in her ability to operate at the core of the Governor Dummer Academy tradition of service. She was selected for and has served on the Discipline Committee: here she has accepted the most difficult of tasks — fair judgment of her peers. She has been president and prime mover of Governor Dummer's chapter of S.A.D.D., Students Against Drunk Driving. On Parent's Weekend she was distributing contracts to parents encouraging families to discuss this critical issue. She has worked at telethons for the Alumni Office and sung in a chorus for a school production. At home she has been a member of the youth group at the Immaculate Conception Church. Under our community service program she has received a special award, a 100 hour pin for service at Anna Jacques Hospital.

Track manager, Red Key member, Big Sister, and supporter of Special Olympics — through her four years she has always surfaced where she can help others. The winner of this year's Academy Prize is:

Erin Rebecca Elwell

The Thorndike Hilton Cup

Any ranking scholar must embody diligence along with intelligence. This student has begun to engage the world of ideas — not as wages of victory in a competition but as an emblem for the scholarship to which we hope all students aspire. It is an honor to award, on behalf of the entire faculty, the Thorndike Hilton Cup and Medal to a senior from Newburyport, Massachusetts:

Sarah Kate Atkins

The Moody Kent Prizes

The Moody Kent Prizes are given annually to those students throughout the school, graduating senior or underclassman, for outstanding achievement in the various academic departments. No more than one may be awarded to the same student.

Art

This artist has learned to manipulate forms, line quality, and color at an exceptional level and has taken talent and developed it to the point where he was making art for himself rather than for class credit.

Andre Renard Sheffield

English

The English Department has celebrated often her energetic and imaginative prose, her intellectual subtlety, her poetic imagination, her promotion of all things literary and humane.

Sarah Kate Atkins

History

Invariably her work possesses depth and is thoroughly and thoughtfully done. A true Renaissance woman, she spent this year sharing her talents and wide ranging interests while serving with distinction as a student intern in the Modern European History Program.

Deirdre Beth Heersink

Through hard work and dedication, she was earned high honor grades, set exemplary standards of achievement for herself and her classmates, and prepared herself and her classmates, and prepared herself for advanced level courses in college. We have no doubt that she will accomplish her goal of being tri-lingual.

Ana Gricelda Garcia

German

During her years as a language student at Governor Dummer, she has worked continuously with dedication and energy to elevate her linguistic skills to a near-fluent level and has motivated her classmates by her example.

Heather Jolene Iram

Latin

Her insight and diligent preparations have been a steady influence in the classroom, and she has not hesitated to help younger students.

Grace Price Jeanes

Spanish

Her teachers have been impressed by the dedication and self-discipline which have resulted in a superb command of the language. She is a delight in class where her meaningful contributions always help to clarify the ideas under discussion.

K. Brooke Whiting

Mathematics

Her proficiency and knowledge rival that of a college sophomore or junior. This scholar has established a benchmark for independent study in the Mathematics Department that future students will have to achieve. Her deep understanding of both concept and theory has introduced her to the beautiful world of abstract mathematics.

Emily Stanwood Keany

Music

A budding Stravinsky? A Bernstein? Ellington? Maybe Bonnie Raitt. Only the future can tell, but the music that she has written and played remains in our hearts.

Sally Burke Simplins

As a high honor student, a dormitory proctor, an active member of Pride, the African-American Latino Society, as a co-founder for Project Reach Out, reaching out to agencies and individuals in our local area, president of the French Club — she has been a beacon of goodness on our campus during her four years with us.

Ardy Louis

During her years at our school she always took the academic and moral high road. She held to this course with dignity as she excelled in our toughest courses, as Editor-in-Chief of an outstanding school newspaper and as an athlete who made valuable contributions to two varsity teams. Her high AP scores and her high average this year — and her attitude — indicate that she is more than ready for college.

K. Brooke Whiting

Science

Although his transcript in science is covered with A's and A pluses, he treats his accomplishments with genuine modesty and humility. He is an active member of the Milestone staff and among the first to volunteer as a science tutor.

Barry Matthew Hugo

Special Prizes

Special Prizes are awarded to "members of the senior class whose perseverance, courage, initiative, sense of responsibility, loyalty, and/or concern of others have contributed to the strength of the Academy."

He has a "can-do" attitude which influences his constant service to the community and those who serve with him. He is a student tutor and one of twenty seniors who guided fresh men-senior discussion groups every week. He is a prodigious worker who has somehow taken on a demanding academic program, and he is always courteous, thoughtful, and friendly. He is one who bonds a community.

Edward Thomas Capeless

She came to us from her native Eritrea. She came to us from a remarkable family which chose to persist as refugees from far away. She will eventually return to her native land; when she does she will know that her efforts as President of the Student Body in 1992 left her school a better place with fond memories of a wonderful person.

Sofia Mahari

Having the personal values and skills to be a dormitory proctor and a member of the critical discipline committee, she excels whether organizing her class to put on a pasta feed for a homeless shelter or earning the Coach's Award in this year's outstanding volleyball team. A tour guide, member of S.A.D.D., a member of Key, absolutely unflappable, she has been a remarkable ambassador for the great state of Texas to which she will return as a college student.

Mercedes Amorette Paul

Through his Renaissance manner, his creative talents are augmented by his concern for others. He has been a volunteer at a homeless shelter, has assisted in Special Olympics and at Windrush Farms, and he is one of the co-founders of Project Reach Out. Tenacity and sensitivity form an impressive combination for this senior.

Stephen Joseph Scully

She is a fine student and a fine athlete. One source of her academic excellence is the curiosity which drives her to read; out of this has come the knowledge and the wisdom to constantly provide intellectual challenges to others. She brought her forthrightness into her thought-provoking sermons and her presidency of this year's chapel committee. Wherever she is, she will always choose to be on the cutting edge.

Her talent has no limits. She has been a major participant in our burgeoning orchestra and ensemble. She has been a brilliant student and an outstanding performer on three varsity teams. She is bright, articulate and involved and brings a joy to her many accomplishments.

Rhea Nicole Holmes

Deirdre Beth Heersink

First Place

In her speech, you heard and felt her courage in surviving and excelling here. This young woman is a careful listener. It is a kind of blessing to be in her presence. As we have all learned, she is a powerful speaker who inspired stenching in others.

Ana Gricelda Garcia

Ambrose Speaking Awards

Second Place

As have many of her classmates, she has struggled to make a place for herself here at GDA, and with her classmates she basks today in the glory of success and graduation. As you heard, she has succeeded by thoughtfully going on a quest, the ancient quest for friendship. Of all the boons a human being may have, friendship may be one of the most precious.

Alison Noel Derderian

Third Place

Whatever contact you may have had with this young man, you will remember it. His parents and his teachers vaguely recall the shy quaking kid who came to GDA a few years ago. Today we acknowledge a person of poise and charm who speaks with authority.

Joshua Cooper Lappin

The Anne Marie Murphy Athletic Award

She was an integral part of New England Championship finalists: soccer team in 1988; a member of the two-time Independent School League Champion Volleyball Teams, and co-captain of the outstanding undefeated volleyball team in the league this past winter. She will be remembered as an athlete who exhibited competitive, aggressive play, and as a source of positive spirit, and a love for competition.

Amy Allison Daniels

The Goodwin Athletic Prize

His accomplishments in soccer, hockey, and baseball only begin to convey the spirit and determination which he brings to competition. His will to win has enthralled his teammates, his own school and rival coaches. The cardinal red of Governor Dummer Academy has been enhanced by

Devin Cross Sullivan

The Peter Marshall French Memorial Trophy

He remains utterly unaware of his excellence, of his quiet but fierce determination, an of the respect he receives from all those around him. He entered his senior year as an accomplished athlete, varsity in soccer, wrestling an lacrosse and captain of wrestling. He does no receive this award because he has received injuries but because of the modest manner with which he takes on seemingly crushing challenges and achieves outstanding success.

Nicholas Andrew Lapierre

The Barriskill Prize

The proper foundation allows one to construct anything one desires, from the functional to the awe inspiring, from cabin to cathedral, from Bach to Brubeck, from Funk to Floyd. We have had a good solid foundation for the last few years, and we have built some mighty structures. Following his strong and steady bass, the Guild has thrived, as has the Jazz Band. Originality has been his trademark, as a composer of varied styles, as the bassist in the musicals, and as the leader of our jazz combo.

Jon-Patrick Costello

The Thespian Award

This year's Drama Award winner stands as a peer in excellence with her classmates. Whether she is dancing, singing, acting, sword-fighting, or standing silently in character, she takes possession of the stage and lights it up. She came to GDA as a star playing the lead in the musical her freshman year. She evolved into a true ensemble actress. She did without complaint whatever part she got. She kept morale high with her sparkling spirit and was a big sister to each new actor who joined the company. "There's no business like show business" for

Judith Ann Livingston

The Mercer Art Prize

This artist's works have often graced our wall and galleries and brought real tangible joy into many people's hearts. Her prowess and skill are superior to all in the ceramics studio where she has made immense progress in throwing large forms and experimenting with their glazes.

In the painting studio, while working in Advanced Art and towards the AP, she has put her obvious talents to good use in producing art, the subjects of which are important to her as she has striven to satisfy her harshest judge herself.

Alison Noel Derderian

The Cumings Prize

He enjoys a challenge: how many students could enter Governor Dummer Academy as an eighth grader and subsequently become during his senior year a dormitory proctor, a captain of an outstanding ice hockey team and President of his class? His courage, confidence, strength and his working relationship with the President of the Student Body formed a major factor in the success of a great year.

Christopher Scott Ruggiero

The Gaffney Prize

She has been described as "a rare and wonderful person, who listens and thinks independently and carefully." She has been a fine dormitory proctor, a conscientious and creative leader of the social committee and a dear friend to all ages.

Grace Price Jeanes

The Alumni Association Award

A three-sport varsity athlete, a class officer and a dorm proctor, he is perhaps best known for his service as the 1991-92 Student Director of the Massachusetts Special Olympics State Soccer Tournament and Cycling Event — an experience and responsibility which he approached with dignity and devotion.

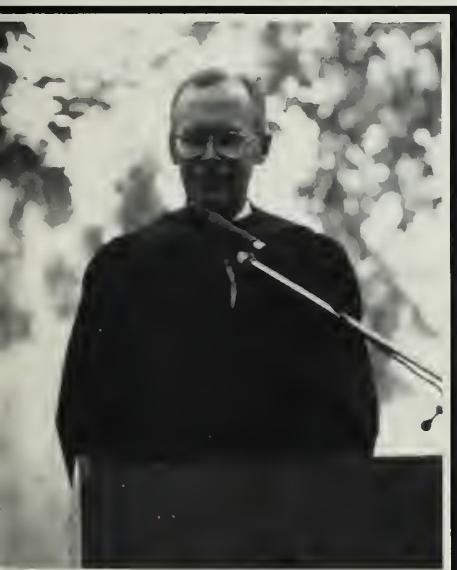

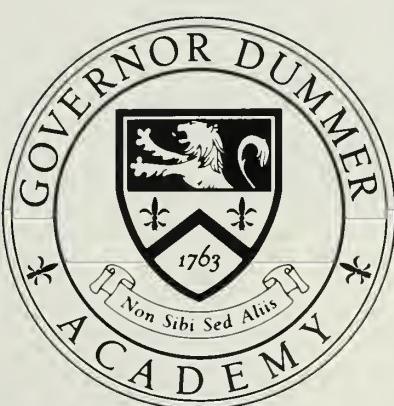

Devin Cross Sullivan

The Wilkie Service Award

Her selflessness is expressed in the many outside agencies that she has served. At Anna Jacques Hospital she has been described as one of the perfect volunteers. She has also worked at the Salisbury Memorial School tutoring homeless children. Here on the Governor Dummer campus she has worked with the Admissions Department and, in particular, with families of Spanish speaking students. In addition, she has served as president of the peer tutoring organization, as a dormitory proctor and as a member of the Chapel Committee.

Several awards recognize the achievement of underclassmen. In spite of their impressive credentials, their day in the sun awaits them in future years.

Faculty & Staff Recognition

We should keep in mind the teaching and guidance from our faculty which made all this possible and we should keep in mind the strength of the competition for these awards. We should think of those who maintain the plant, provide the food, guide the offices and those not always present who support the Academy. Thus, as we honor individuals who are fully deserving of these awards we are also honoring the dedication of a community to the highest possible goals in education.

CONGRATULATIONS, CASSIE

XXXX

Julia, Gail, and Dad

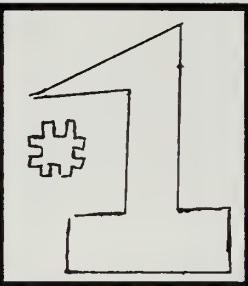

Youth, health, and a joyful heart
And the open world before us
Hills to echo our shouts of glee
Free and wild the sky arching o'er us
Roar, waves, the swallows dart
And the winds join in the chorus:
Mountain and plain, these our domain,
In the kingdom of sky and sea!

T.B.M.

CONGRATULATIONS, CASSIE

The Peabodys

To The Class Of 1992

I'm so glad we had this time together, just to have a laugh and sing a song.
Seems we just get started and before you know it, comes the time we have to say so long.

- Carol Burnett

We Shall Find Peace.
We Shall Hear The Angels.
We Shall See the Sky Sparkling With Diamonds.

- Anton Chekhov

Wake up to find that you are the eyes of the world.
- The Grateful Dead

Put something silly in the world that ain't been there before.

- Shel Silverstein

If you wake up and don't want to smile,
If it takes just a little while,
Open your eyes and look at the day
You'll see things in a different way.

- Fleetwood Mac

Love,
Cara and the Fineman family

Congratulations, Joe and the entire Senior Class.
As you chart a new course to college, reflect upon your years at G.D.A.

Love Mom, Dad,

Editor's Note

July 16- I write this to you while lying on the quad between the Mansion House and Phillips. As I look around at all the familiar spots on this beautiful summer day, I can't help but reminisce about all that has happened here at GDA. There are several people around, but all that I have come to know and love is missing. I am alone and unsure of where my future leads.

While at GDA, I have learned three important things: I love my family, I love my friends, and I love this school. It is difficult to admit it, but I will truly miss all three tremendously. I have constructed a yearbook that will hopefully be able to grasp everything that we felt about this school over the years we attended it. I want to thank all those who helped me with this yearbook. Your support and hard work can only be realized after receiving a finished project. When people pick up this yearbook, some will laugh and some will cry; but most importantly, I want everyone to remember Governor Dummer Academy and all the people here as I wish to be remembered, with a smile.
